ADAMS Taleem-ul-Quran Program (TQP) Rules and regulations for parents:

1. I understand that upon enrollment, I am required to keep all usernames and passwords in a safe location, and to not share it with anyone. This includes all links that have been provided by the program and teacher either through email, messages, or that has been posted on secured communication platforms.
2. I understand that when either writing or speaking, students must be respectful and use appropriate language.
3. I understand that students are recommended to position themselves with their back against a wall, or in an area where there is no view into their home where individuals may walk by during live video sessions to respect privacy.
4. I understand that when my child is in session, that the time is to be respected. Any teacher conference is to be arranged via email.
5. I understand that I must submit credit card information for the school year at the time of registration.
6. I understand that there will be a $20 declined credit card/debit card fee applied to my child's account if card is declined for any reason. I understand that there will be a $5 per credit card transaction processing fee per month for credit/debit cards.
7. I understand that if my child joins ADAMS TQP before the 15th of the month, I will pay full fee. However, the fee will be half for that month if my child joins after the 15th.
8. I understand that if I plan to take an extended leave for upto 30 days and wish to save my child's place, I will notify the administration in writing and ADAMS TQP can help me by charging half of the regular fee. In case, I do not notify the administration of the extended leave from the program, I will be charged full fee for that month.
9. I understand that according to ADAMS TQP policy, the administration must receive the student's withdrawal request in writing before the 1st of the month, otherwise I will be charged for that month.
10. Unless notified in writing, I understand that the program may use my child's picture or his or her likeness in its brochure and advertising materials without any monetary compensation
11. The program reserves the right to remove any student for harmful or any inappropriate behavior without refund
12. I understand that ADAMS TQP does not provide Special Ed services or IEPs, and that my child does not receive any special class in his/her school.

I have read, understood and agreed to the terms and conditions above, prior to signing them.
